Production Design And Content By Bonnie Golden

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

40 STARS TO APPEAR

HOLLYWOOD — KRLA, the station that always scores first, has done it again! This time, KRLA becomes the first station in the world to have its own TV spectacular! Naturally, being KRLA, the spectacular will be about music . . . but not just about Beatle music. The name of the show is "KRLA PRESENTS . . . MILLION DOLLAR MUSIC." It will trace the beginning of rock and roll from the first days of Bill Haley back in 1955 right up to the present Beatle-mad days of today.

GIANT LINE UP

The show will feature live appearances and film clips of the greatest names in the record business, with a line up never before seen on one show. Among the stars appearing will be the Beatles, Elvis Presley, 4 Preps, Roger Miller, Dick Clark, Jack Good, The Vibrants, Bobby Rydell, The Coasters, Martha & Vandellas, Billy & Lilly, Chuck Berry, Sam & Johnny, Dee Clark, Sam Cooke, Duane Eddy, Danny & the Jrs., Connie Francis, Platters, Bobby Vee, Della Reese, Bobby Darin, Big Bopper, Jan & Dean, Chubby Checker, Skip & Flip, Ray Peterson, Brook Benton, Paul Anka, Diamonds, Fleetwoods, Hal Haley, Jim Reeves, Johnny Horton, and Little Anthony. Also scheduled for the show, but not yet confirmed, are the Rolling Stones, Dion, Shelley Fabares, Iley Brothers, and Jimmy Rogers.

D.J.S WILL APPEAR

Every one of the KRLA d.j.s will appear for his own segment of the ninety minute show. Opening host will be Hank Mancini, who will introduce the d.j.s.

The spectacular will be shown Thursday, January 28th on Channel 13, KCOB, from 8:30 to 10:00. And we can bet that we don't even have to remind you not to miss it!

Well, so you were lucky enough to be able to be here for the latest edition of my wonderful column! I'll bet you couldn't stay away! After all, where else could you find such wit, such intelligence, such charm? WIN THE TELEPHONE DIRECTORY, MAYBE? Maude, can't you leave me alone for just one week? Honest to Petey (and John, George, Paul, and Ringo too!) Why do you bother me so much? "HOW COULD I LEAVE SOMEONE AS WONDERFUL AS YOU ALONE?" Well, in that case . . . anyhow, next week in the KRLA BEAT, you'll see the results of the first annual KRLA BEAT Awards! And you'll really be surprised by the winners! I mean, you won't be surprised by who won, but you WILL be surprised at how close the voting was between the winning group and the second place group! And to the person who keeps sending in votes for me, thank, mom! Anyhow, I'll see you next week with the surprising result!

YOU GIVE A "HOOT"!

PASADENA—KRLA's annual "hoot" showed that KRLAers everywhere DO give a hoot . . . because they turned out in full force to make the KRLA March of Dimes Hootenanny a "roaring" success! The Hootenanny featured Joe & Eddie, Jackie De Shannon, The Youngfells, Hoyt Axton, The Dillards, The Women Folk, and a host of other star attractions. The KRLA d.j.s were there to enice the show, and wild hand clapping with everyone joining in the singing helped make the lively evening even livelier!

When Dave Hull became the only disc jockey in the world to have his very own English group, letters started pouring in. You all wanted to see more of the group . . . the Hullabaloo. And so . . . the very minute they came into town, they made their way to KRLA to meet Dave and . . . er, "help" him on the air. If you thought you heard giggles that night, you were right. With the Hullabaloo making a hullabaloo all over the station, it was pretty hard to keep a straight face. The KRLA BEAT was there to catch the fun on camera and share it with you. Here they are . . . the Hullabaloo!

. . . so Dave gives Jeff a short lesson. (No, he wasn't looking for anything . . . he was combing Jeff's hair!) Later on, the boys combed Dave's hair, told him "Let it grow."

Not only does Dave blow his own horn, but he even has to blow up his own balloons! Yes, these are the famous "Hullabalooes," and the boys took a whole handful back to England!

They got into Dave's box of horns and said they never had as much fun in their lives! Poor Dave looks like he's ready to shoot himself, but don't worry . . . that horn isn't loaded!

Nope, it's not Napoleon! The boys form an arch of regimental swords (they look suspiciously like Hullabalooes) while Dave strikes a military pose. They couldn't keep a straight face!

After joining (how could they resist?), the Hullabalooes use Dave's back to sign their autographs on the KRLA BEAT. "Let's see now . . . if I rent my back out at 15c an autograph, I'll be rich!"

Dave was on the air, so he had to run back. Harry with the umbrella, while Mike Moor, the watches from the sidelines.

The boys decided to make some "adjustments" to one of the funniest groups KRLA has: the greatest!

"HAIL TO THE CHIEF!" This picture is very de Jeff, and Harry hold Dave's arms. Eiky was they crowned Dave "honorary Englishman!"

Uh, ah! The boys discover the switchboard! please . . . yes, collect! The boys are from the room castle! And you're all invited!

Did you ever look up to see a control room full of Hullebaloes? Dave did, and the look of surprise on his face speaks for itself! The boys wanted to know exactly how to be a d.j. . .

Now it's Harry's turn . . . Dave tries HIS hat on! But even though Harry gave Dave his umbrella, for some reason, Dave just doesn't look like a Hullebaloot! And speaking of horns . . .!

by Casey Kasem

So many of you have asked me for more likes and dislikes of your favorite stars that I've spent the last two weeks finding out all the latest facts for you ... so here goes!

Peter of Peter and Gordon likes girls with long hair who are quiet and intelligent. He's a very serious student of philosophy!

Charlie Watts of the Stones is a real fan and will spend hours with anyone who likes jazz! Mick, on the other hand, digs talking about rhythm and blues with someone who knows what they're talking about.

Herman of the Hermits loves to do kooky things, and cracks up over a good practical joke, especially when it's on him.

Gerry Marsden doesn't like the night club scene ... you'll find him most often just taking a quiet walk with someone he can talk to. Same with Manfred Mann, who digs girls who know how to carry on a good conversation.

I'll be out searching up more little known facts about well known people and bring them here for you in two weeks!

BEATLE BITS

by Dick Moreland

Hey, all you bitniks out there, it's time for Beatle Bits again!

Did y'know that the Beatles brought more money into England last year than the country's entire export business? And that the Queen of England "adores" the four gear guys and has all their records?

Speaking of money, you all know that the boys made gobs of it last year ... but do you know how John and Paul made most of their share? Songwriting! Righto, J & P made over four million dollars on songwriting alone!

In fact, the two have become the most sought-after songwriters in the world ... mainly because every song they've ever written has been a hit!

For those of you who have been worried, George has gained back most of the weight he lost while on tour. And Ringo's voice sounds better than ever now that his tonsils are out.

Anyone who thinks the Beatles have had it better look again. Their album made record history when it became the only album to make the top one spot in two weeks! It went from number 98 on the trade charts to number one ... and if that means the boys are has beans, pardon me while I laugh ... or larf!

That's it for this week ... see you in two!

Pretty fab line up, don't you think? Gee, too bad you'll have to watch it on tv. Don't you wish you could be there? Bet you think that that's what the prize is this week, don't you? Bet you think that we're going to take the winner to the show and let them be with the KRLA BEAT backstage and talk to all the stars and everything. That's what you think, right? Well, you're absolutely right!
