OVER 5,000 RECEIVED

KRLA — One of the most successful contests in radio history was held by KRLA this month. The Valentine Art Festival, which started in late January, saw over 5,000 hand made valentines sent or brought to KRLA's studios in Pasadena.

The valentines all showed great imagination and creativity. Some of them were so unusual that the d.j.s they were sent to decided to take them home and save them!

PIZZA AND CAKE

It looks as though a lot of you believe the old saying "The way to a man's heart is through his stomach." So man, cakes were brought to the station that KRLA could have opened up in own bake shop! Many of the cakes were in the shape of hearts, and all of them were beautifully decorated. You can be sure that everyone at the station gained at least ten pounds! One of the most unusual valentines was a four foot pizza in the shape of a heart! The pizza was decorated with sausage, mushrooms, anchovies and green peppers, and looked simply delicious! Other valentines were made of cardboard, wood, and paper. They were decorated with sequins, artificial flowers, tissue paper roses, glitter, and paint. More of them had some kind of lace trim, and all of them showed hours of hard work.

THE WINNERS

The two d.j.s who got the most valentines were Emperors (Beautiful Bob) Hudson, and the winner, Dave Hull. So many valentines came for Dave that a special room had to be set aside for his valentines only! The happy winners will appear next week in the KRLA BEAT, along with their winning valentines. And if you didn't win this time . . . there's always next year!

The KRLA BEAT is owned and published by KRLA. All material therein is the property of KRLA, as is the name "BEAT" and/or the KRLA BEAT.

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

Well, I've finally made the big time! If you don't believe me, look inside for the scoop! Tell me what other d.j.s could do that . . . and be so modest, too!

Anyway, so all you scoffers out there, I DO have a few friends. "HERE'S TWENTY CENTS, BIG BOY . . . CALL BOTH OF THEM!" Oh, Maud, your jealousy doesn't even bother me any more . . . not when the Scuzzys are Casey's pick to bit! (I would have made it my own pick, but how could I not go with you?) Actually, I can't tell you how excited I am about the record! It really makes me feel good. Now, don't all of you go writing songs for me just because you want a bit record! After all, Ringo, you really don't need another hit! By the way, did you know that for some strange reason, the record is a KRLA exclusive? Yep, we got 'em all first! And another thing, thanks for all those nice valentines, you all! I'm going to take them home and paste them on my wall. . . it's high time I took down all those Christmas cards! Anyroad, good-bye for this week . . . but don't fret, I'll be back next week, you lucky things! And goodnight, Dave Clark . . . whatever you are!

JOHN HATS

LONDON — If you've wanted a cap just like John Lennon's, now you can get one! KRLA BEAT tracked down the store where John bought his Beatle hat and got some information about it for you!

The cap is handsome of soft top quality leather, lined with red satin. They come in black and brown, and John has bought over eight of them so far, all black. The satin inside is waterproof, and

By day, Dick Marceland is KRLA's record librarian, listening to the hundreds of records brought to KRLA each week to see if they have that "chill" potential. But during the TAMM show, mild-mannered D.M. went to the show...

... and had the time of his life! He knew most of the artists on the show, and it was great to see them all together again. Here he talks to the M.C.s of the show, Jan and Dean. They were really funny during the taping!

Dick meets one of the Miracles, one of his all-time favorite groups. You can hear Dick's groovy show every weekend... and some of his funny jokes about the top stars will have you in stitches!

Uh, oh, what's this! We all thought that Dick's hair looked fine, but it looks like the Supremes didn't! Actually, they did, but they all have secret desires to be hairdressers and decided to experiment on Dick!

Gosh time! One of the Beach Boys takes time out to talk to two of his friends with the same first name. Dick St. John, of Dick & DeeDee, stopped by to say hello and catch the show. DeeDee couldn't make it.

In case you're wondering where Dick got all those groovy scoops on the Beach Boys, now you know... right from the source! The Beach Boys recently finished a tour of England and said that it was a gas.

Dick talks with the man that stole the show... James Brown. Dick says that he is one of the greatest & is entertainers out today, and anyone who saw the TAMM show will surely agree with him. He was great!

During a break in the taping, Dick relaxes with some of the KRLAers who attended the show. Over 3000 free tickets were given away by KRLA for this groovy show! It has now been turned into a film and will be out this month.

This is one of the most famous pictures to ever appear in the KRLA BEAT. Dick and Gerry Marsden grin from ear to ear and manage to look like twins doing it! Gerry completely cracked up when he saw this picture.

Dick talks to one of his favorite girls, Lesley Gore. Leslie loved being in the show, and said that the next time she came out to California, she would make a special trip to Pasadena to see KRLA.

Here Dick is with the king... Chuck Berry! Chuck is coming to town on the 24th of this month for a show, and you can bet that Dick will be there... along with Bobby Dole, of course! A new TAMM show will be filmed in April.

After the taping, there was a big banquet for everyone at the show. The informal fun after the show was even more fun than the show itself! Dick said that he had more fun there than at any other show he's ever been to!

KINK LEADER GETS MARRIED

LONDON—Ray Davies, leader of the Kinks, was married December 12th in Bradford, England. The lucky girl is RASA DAVIES, 18, from Bradford. Ray met Rasa over a year ago when she was singing folk songs at a party. The two started dating soon after, and became engaged in September. The new Mrs. Davies is a natural blonde, with long hair that she wears straight. She resembles Jackie DeShannon, who is also one of her idols. Rasa's voice can be heard on a record that may be released in an album in this country, "Come On Now." She sings the background. The record is currently on the other side of their newest single in England.

Ray doesn't think that his marriage will hurt the group's popularity. "As long as our records are good, I think teenagers will accept us."

The group was formed three years ago in Muswell Hill, London. All four members, Ray, his brother Dave, Mick Avory, and Pete Dinklage, were art students at the Croydon School of Art. They decided to form a group to help earn money for their studies, and the Kinks were born. Ray plays rhythm guitar and harmonica, while Dave is vocalist and lead guitarist of the group. Pete, who also sings, plays bass guitar, while Mick is the group's drummer. The boys designed their way out stage uniforms themselves, and the clothes have now become their trademark.

Ray comes from a big family . . . five brothers and one sister. His per se is snobs, and he likes to spend his spare time sleeping. "I went myself out on stage," he grins. He flips for r&b, but also knows quite a bit about classical music. Even though the group's success has stopped them from continuing their studies at the Croydon art school, Ray still keeps his hand in, and loves to draw quick sketches of people to pass away the time backstage at performances.

If you want to send a congratulatory card to Ray and his new wife, their address is Collingwood Avenue, Muswell Hill, London, England.

Now there's an addition to the Kinks . . . (See Story)

TAMI SHOW SKIING TRIP FOR BEATLE

Electronovision, the firm who filmed the first TAMI show, has sold the show to American International films, who are releasing it as a full length movie nationwide. The film is now released under the name of "The All Star Rock and Roll Festival," and is currently playing in New York. It should reach here later this month. A new TAMI show is going to be filmed in April, and will star eleven groups. Names of the groups aren't available at this moment, but it's fairly definite that the show will again be filmed out here.

John Lennon has announced that he will take a short vacation from Beatle activities this week to go on a skiing trip to the Alps. His wife, Cynthia, will go with him, along with George Martin, his recording manager. Although John has never skied before, he has always wanted to try his luck at the sport and feels that he will learn enough this trip so that he'll at least be able to make it down one of the slopes!

BOBBY IS REB'S RECORD NOW ACTOR

HOLLYWOOD—Bobby Vinton, currently riding the charts with his recording of "Mr. Lonely" is working hard on scaring people! That's right . . . scaring! He's doing the lead part of a baby-faced killer on the Alfred Hitchcock show. This isn't Bobby's first venture into the film world. He's appeared in several movies and a number of tv shows, but says that his record career will always be more important than his film career. So far, he's doing a good job of combining both! After you've seen the show, which will be shown in two months, you can even send Bobby a letter telling him what you thought of the show. His home address is 7100 Hillside, Los Angeles 46, Calif.

HOLLYWOOD—Reb Foster, popular KRLA d.j., is well on his way to being a new singing sensation! His record, "Something You Got," was released last week and is starting to take off like a bird! The record is on the Loma label, and is backed by "Quezel and Jude," an instrumental. Sonny Buono, of Sonny and Cher, directed the recording session, and also played harmonica on it. Last month, the KRLA BEAT printed pictures taken at the session, and you were able to see the singing side of Reb for the first time. The record has a bluesy, funky sound with plenty of soul. Cashbox and Billboard, the two record industry trade magazines, both picked the record as a "Best Bet," which means that they think the record will be a hit. After listening to it, so do we!

Like Lennon, Like Stone!

LONDON—John Lennon isn't the only musical author . . . as Charlie Watts of the Rolling Stones proved when his book, "Ode to a High Flying Bird" was released last week in England!

The book is a tribute to Charlie's idol, Charlie "Bird" Parker the late sax player who is one of the legendary greases of jazz. (Charlie has always been a jazz fan). It consists mainly of Charlie's drawings with handwritten captions. The drawings are in color, and show quite a bit of talent. Since Charlie was a commercial artist before he became a Stone, they are imaginative and professional.

"I wasn't trying to write a book . . . in fact, I did this years ago, way before there was any 'beat' sound. It was something I felt, and I just put it down in drawings on paper. There's hardly any actual writing in it, in fact. It's only about 30 pages. I'd nearly forgotten I'd ever done it, and then mentioned it to a friend who asked to see it. When he said he wanted to publish it, it knocked me out!"

The book has gotten very good reviews so far. It's not known yet if Charlie plans on following up with another book, as has Lennon, but if the good reviews continue, he probably will!

If you wish to order the latest issue of the KRLA BEAT, send a self-addressed stamped envelope and five cents for each issue. Back issues of the KRLA BEAT are ten cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

VISA BAN GETS GROUP

NEW YORK — The power of the H-1 Visa ban was felt once more when another of England's top groups were forced to cancel a personal appearance just a few minutes before they were to go on stage. The incident happened in New York, where the group, the Animals, were scheduled to record an album live at the Apollo Theatre in Harlem. The Apollo is the home of rhythm and blues, and it had been the ambition of the whole group to someday work there. They had arrived in New York on January 18th for two days work at the famous theatre, and were also going to shoot part of a movie during that time. After their show at the Apollo, they were to tape an Ed Sullivan show on the 24th and fly out to California.

Unfortunately, these arrangements were made without the permission of the American Federation of Musicians, who have to give the okay on all overseas groups who appear in this country. The Animals had done one of the four shows a day they did at the Apollo when they received a call from their agent stating that unless they left the theatre immediately, their visas could be withdrawn and they would have to leave the country that day. The boys left, and then discovered that the AFM had also withdrawn permission for them to appear on the Sullivan show. The group and their manager, Mike Jeffries, along with their lawyer and agents then met with officials of the union to discuss this, and permission was finally granted for them to appear on the Sullivan show, barely 24 hours before the show was to be taped. They did one number on the show, "Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood," which is their latest record.

The group's trip to California is now being delayed until Mike Jeffries can make arrangements with the union to have their visas restored. If the visas are not given back to the group, they will have to go back to England immediately and won't be able to come back to this country until April.

RECORD REVIEW

By BOB EUBANKS

Before I start reviewing records this week, I want to ask you if you've noticed something I've been noticing... there's a new trend in music! Both English and American artists are getting down to the roots of rock... blues! I'm glad of it, too, because records are sounding better than ever!

To start off, KRLA's exclusive by the Rolling Stones, "Need You Baby," should be released as their next single in this country. It's caused more reaction than any other record by the group, and is one of their best so far.

The Animals have a hit with "Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood," their newest. It's a case of a song, and should start climbing.

Maxine Brown, one of the fastest rising blues singers, follows up her last hit with a real goodie, "It's Gonna Be Alright." She really lays on this one, and it could happen for her.

Reb Foster's newie, "Something You Got," is a real winner! No one at the station knew he could sing with so much soul! Looks like our boy is going to be a star!

The Dave Clark Five get off the beaten path with "Come Home." It's more of an American sound than an English one, and entirely different from the group's past efforts.

Terril Black should really make the top of the charts with his new one, "Everyone Can Tell." It's a real rocker, with lots of beat behind it.

That cools it for this week. I'll be back with more records to review in two!

Dave In Magazine

KRLA—Teen Scen Magazine, the top selling, biggest teenage fan magazine on the stands, is doing a two page article on... none other than Dave Hall! They have done short articles on Dave before this, and he has also been their d.j. of the month. Janey Milstead, editor of the magazine, said that "Dave has shown much more potential than most of the d.j.s in this country. We get letters asking about him from as far away as New York, and many of the top groups that stop into the office mention that he is their friend. When we saw the pictures of Dave with the Bullhorns that appeared in the KRLA BEAT, we asked Bonnie Golden, the editor, if we could have them for an article on Dave."

FAX... ON... WAX!

By REB FOSTER

Paul McCartney must be thinking of becoming a racing driver! His new car, an Aston Martin, goes over 150 miles per hour! The car is dark blue and has black leather upholstery, and includes a record player which was custom built for the car!

Bass player for the Hollies, Eric Haydock, got married on January 23rd to Pamela Done, 20, in Stockport, England.

Chad and Jeremy have turned to acting! The gear twosome from you-know-where have been signed for a dramatic role on the Patty Duke show. Stay tuned and we'll tell you when the show will be on.

Brian Epstein flew to New York last week to discuss the summer tour by the Beatles. He now says that the boys won't do the same grinding type of tour they did last year, but will do only about 15 days of concert dates. AND... they're going to take a short vacation in this country... right here in K*^R*L*A*^N*D!

The next Dick and DeeDee record will be the one that was written especially for them by Mick Jagger and Keith Richards! But they aren't the only Stones who can write a song... Bill Wyman also wrote "Joey" in Paige's new one, "I'm in Love With You." It was recorded two weeks ago and will be out later this month.

Dave Davies of the Kinks bought George Harrison's old guitar. Kink, by the way, is English slang for wild, weird, and wonderful!

That's it for this week... see you in two with more fax on wax!

PERSONALS

Do you want your personals printed? Each week, we'll print any messages you want to send through the KRLA BEAT! Just mail your message in on a post card to: PERSONALS, KRLA BEAT, 1401 South Oak Knoll Rd., Pasadena, California. Keep messages about three lines. Dear Sue—I'm so sorry that you lost, but so did I! If Dave Hull knew, he would dedicate, "I'm a Loser" to us. You're not real, though. Better luck in next year's elections.
A good friend, Ruth

DATE WITH DEEDEE!

By DeeDee Sperling

Hi, everyone!

Gee, I can't tell you how excited I am to have my own column in the BEAT! I'll be here once a month from now on, and I'd really like to hear from every one of you . . . just send your letters to me, DeeDee Sperling, here at the KRLA BEAT.

A lot of you have been wondering if Dick and I are related or going steady or what. Actually, Dick and I met in high school and were always good friends. Dick wanted to cut a record, and asked me to sing on the other side of it. I did, and our first record, "Mountains High" was a hit. Dick and I have been singing ever since!

Now I'll answer a few of the letters I've received from you:

To Franny, L.A.: Yes, we just came back from a tour of England, and can't wait to go over again. It was our first trip, and we loved it.

To Tom, Encino: You heard right, I am serious about being a writer. I've been working on some serious stories, and someday hope to write a book.

To Ginny, Pasadena: Wow, that's a hard question to answer! I really can't describe which group I've enjoyed working with the most! We did the Rolling Stones show in Long Beach, and they are simply fantastic . . . one of the greatest groups in the world. Gerry and the Pacemakers are also too much . . . in fact Gerry is one of the friendliest people I've ever met! Tell you what . . . if Dick and I are ever lucky enough to work with the Beatles, maybe I'll be able to answer your question. Right now I just can't decide!

Whoops, I've run out of room! Guess I'll have to say goodbye for this month . . . in the meantime, why don't you drop me a line? I'd love to hear from you!

the leather is waterproof and never needs shining or polishing. It can be cleaned with a damp cloth. If you want one, write to: The Bazaar, 46 Brompton Road, London SW3, England. Here's the catch . . . the cap costs 15 guineas English money . . . and that figures out to be about $44.10 American! However, if the cost hasn't thrown you already, and you DO want one, please write to the store for information before you send any money!

CONTEST CORNER!

Every week, when the KRLA BEAT comes out, do you rush right down to your neighborhood record store, only to find out that they were sold out five minutes ago? And so do you rush back to your house, cram a nickel and self addressed stamped envelope into another envelope, and rush right down to the post office for your copy? Tsk, tsk. That's awful. This is the way it should be: You're lying on your silk sheets in your heart shaped bed . . . the maid comes in and asks you if you feel like having a delicious steak before you hop into your private chauffeured limousine to be taken to school. When the maid brings your breakfast, the butler comes in and hands you your own copy of the KRLA BEAT . . . hot off the presses. Doesn't that sound great? How would you like it to come true? Well, it can! All you have to do is find the silk sheets, heart shaped bed, chauffeured limousine, butler and maid. We'll do the rest!

Yes, You Can Win Your Very Own Copy of the KRLA BEAT, Mailed to Your Home the Minute It Gets Off the Press! Every Week Your Copy Will Be Delivered Right to You, and You'll Get Your's Before Anyone Else!

Just think how everyone will scoot over to your house to find out all the scoops! Just think of how important you'll feel as you carry your exclusive copy of the KRLA BEAT down the street for all the world to see! Boyohhboy, could you ask for anything more? (And stop yelling Ringo at us . . . we want him too!)

How many issues have there been of the KRLA BEAT so far? Twenty? Ten Fifteen? Forty? Do you know? If you do, jot the answer down on a postcard and mail it to Contest Corner. You might just be the winner! Entries must be in by March 1st. Winner will be decided by earliest post mark.
