

L AND RINGO — "THE US THE FACTS"

(Story in Col. 1)

KRLA BEAT

Rights after KRLA made the announcement that the Beatles were rumored to be married, we got this letter from a KRLA fan who asked us to print it because the thought it summed up the feelings of all of you . . .

AN OPEN LETTER TO PAUL AND RINGO

Dear Paul and Ringo,

A lot of tears were shed in Los Angeles this past week. You see, KRLA received word from a friend of yours that you are both married. We haven't heard from you, so we're writing this letter . . . from Beale fans everywhere to let you know how WE feel.

You know, when you give someone something that's very precious to you, and they throw it at your feet, it hurts. That's what you've done to us. We've given you our hearts. We buy your records, we watch you on tv, we dream about you at night. And what do you do in return? You show that you don't think enough of us, or have enough faith in us to give even a small part of yourself. Do you think we're so fickle that we would turn against you if you're married? No, we didn't cry because of the news. We cried because it came from someone else, because you didn't trust us enough to tell us yourself.

If you think we're being calm, look at it from our side. We love you. Not because you live in Liverpool or because you sing songs we like, but because of YOU . . . the way you are, the things you do, the happiness you make us feel inside every time we think of you. You're our leaders . . . just like Jesus before us had James Dean and before that, Rudolph Valentino. But there's never been a leader like you. You've given us something no leader has ever been able to give . . . the ability to make us laugh at ourselves. You aren't rebelling or fighting any cause. You don't tell us where to go or how to get there. You let us be ourselves and maybe that's why we love you so much. You're part of us, not because we made you, but because you made us see so much more than we could ever see before. Do you honestly think that our hearts are so small, or our love so limited that we would shut you out if you admitted you were married? It hurts us to think that you feel we don't care enough to accept you on YOUR terms . . . respect of what they are. Don't you think we deserve the respect you would show to any of our other friends? Don't you think we deserve the truth?

Okay. That's our side. Now let's look at yours.

First point . . . the news of your marriage might ruin your career. To quote Ringo's famous words, "Rubbish." First of all, you always say you couldn't

After reading the letter in the KRLA BEAT, I was asked for my comment. This rumor has popped up so many times that there is only one thing left for you to say, and that is this: You say you are hurt because the boys don't trust you enough to tell you the facts. How do you think THEY feel when you show that YOU don't trust them to tell you if and when they do get married? They have denied being married on KRLA for all of you to hear. Don't you trust them enough to believe them?

Sincerely,

DAVE HULL

BOOK BY EPSTEIN

HOLLYWOOD — Brian Epstein, now in town with his new discovery Tommy Quickly, has not only written his own biography, but is having a movie made about his life!

The book, titled "Cellarful of Noise," comes out November 20 and is published by Doubleday and Co. Rumor says that the reason for the name of the book is the "cellarful of noise" where Brian discovered the Beatles . . . and started his career as the most famous manager in the world.

In his book, Brian retells how he got interested in an unknown group when fans walked into his record store to ask for their record. He went to one of England's crowded cellar clubs to see them . . . they turned out to be the Beatles . . . and that's where it all began.

Although he is only 30, Brian Epstein is truly the "big genius"

SPEND A DAY AT KRLA

Rab Foster and Gary Mack, KRLA's newest addition, look at a new ear phone together. Gary, as you know, is honorary president of the Tommy Quickly fan club.

Charlie 'O' grabs his mail after coming off the air. Charlie and Rab both just cut records, and you never heard two better sounds! Question: can a d.j. be a record star too?

It's Kasey's turn at the mike! Yes, this is the famous KRLA control room, home of the Beatles and every other top singer! Who's record is that one you're playing Casey?

Remember our straw poll? If some of you heard a funny voice taking your votes, now you know why! After all, who but the Scurry one would try to answer five phones at once?

Ah, hal! Who have we here? None other than Daphne of Emperor Hudson fame! (To those in the know, she's also called Sie Holliday.) Sie had her own show on KRLA.

Here we are in the record library. Dick Moreland, our record librarian, listens to a new release brought over by Dave Fax. Dick hears about twenty new releases a day!

The record library was where our straw vote took place. Dick, Reb, and some record promoters watch the girls answer phones. They didn't tell who they voted for!

Fun time! Dave shows Rab a closely guarded secret. "It's a picture Rab... a picture I drew of you! What do you think of it, huh? Give me your honest opinion, okay?"

How honest can you get? No, Rab didn't really hit Dave... this week, the scurry one was wearing REB's tie! Dave and Rab are really very close friends.

In the news room, Bill McMillan and Dick Beebe discuss a KRLA broadcast that just came over the teletype. How do you like the beard Richard Beebe is wearing?

Surprise time! Rab gets flowers and records from a friend. Being at KRLA is always exciting and fun! There's never a dull moment. (The window behind Rab is the control room.)

Peter And Gordon Tour

NEW YORK—Peter and Gordon are set for another tour of America beginning November 15, (last Sunday), where they will start their tour by appearing on the Ed Sullivan show. No definite date has been set for an appearance in K*E*R*L*A*N*D, but the boys have said they want to spend a few days here to soak up some sun (?). They landed in New York on the 8th of November and spent a week in New York, where they gave press conferences and did promotional work for their new record, "I Don't Want to See You Again." It will be a relaxed tour, since only ten dates are set for personal appearances at this time.

CASEY'S CORNER

by Casey Kasem

Hi, everyone! It's Kaser time again!

Here's some little known facts about well-known people: Starting off with the Newbeats this week, but you can't guess how they got their start! Dean and Mark, two brothers, were appearing in Louisiana, and were in the middle of a song when Larry Henley, the high voice, jumped up on stage and started singing with them. The three decided to stay together as a group, and everyone has heard the results!

Did you know that when Peter

Gordon and Gordon were in town in August, Peter had such a bad case of stomach flu that he could hardly get out of bed? Yet he was still nice to everyone!

How about this for a fact! Dick and DeeDee were on the being! Dick! He asked DeeDee to fill in on the B side of a record (B side means the other side of the hit side), and when the record was released, d.j.s liked the side that DeeDee was on and made it a hit! The record of course, was "Mountains High."

That's all for this week! I'll be back in two weeks with more groovy inside facts about your favorites . . . see you then!

TOMMY QUICKLY ARRIVES

HOLLYWOOD—T.Q. Week has finally arrived! Yep, Tommy Quickly is now here in K*E*R*L*A*N*D! Even Brian Epstein was unprepared for the groovy reception shown by KRLA-ers to his new discovery. Tommy's record has been over 400 members! The club was but already his fan club numbers over 400 members! The club was prepared by Jeanie Anderson after she read about Tommy here in the KRLA BEAT. Gary Mack, KRLA's newest d.j., is honorary president, and one of the biggest T.Q. fans. The club really swings, and if you want to join, write to Jeanie at 1300 East Broadway, Apt. A, Glendale, California.

NOT LIKE BEATLES

Unlike other singers who have tried to ride the Beatles' coattails to fame, Tommy is a personality in his own right. His personal appearances are complete sellouts, and when you see him, you'll know why! He is completely unselfconscious on stage, with a certain personality unlike any other star . . . and he really wails!

Although Tommy is only 19, he's been singing since he was in high school, but he never thought of becoming a "star" until Brian Epstein discovered him at a dance, where he was auditioning. Epstein decided right then and there that he wanted to manage this boy, and it looks like Brian was right! Tommy is "quickly" becoming one of the biggest single singers that England has ever seen! Stay tuned to KRLA for all the latest news about where Tommy is starting out where Tommy can see him.

REB PULLS A "WIPE OUT"

HOLLYWOOD—Reb Foster, popular KRLA d.j., suffered a "wipe out" on his new motor-cycle the first day he got it. Reb was heading to his house in the Hollywood Hills when his cycle skidded and he was thrown to the ground. He suffered a badly lacerated arm and several muscle sprains and bone bruises. Luckily, the bike wasn't going too fast, so Reb wasn't seriously hurt. However, he climbed right back on and drove home, although he says he's going to stay off the cycle "at least until I can move my leg again!" But nothing on earth will make him give it up, he stated, so stay tuned for further . . . er, developments!

of the record business. In just three short years, he has taken over the management of most of England's top stars, including Billy J. Kramer, Gerry and the Pacemakers, Dusty Springfield, and many others.

Although the book is essentially about Brian's life story, it deals mainly with the story of the Beatles' rise to fame.

All Beatle fans will want to read this groovy book to get the REAL lowdown on their Beatles . . . right from the source!

OPEN LETTER

are less about your career. You say you're just having a good time. If that's true, then why are you shying away from any mention of your "marriage"? Second point, as far as my "marriage" goes . . . John is married. We've known he was married ever since that first night on the Sullivan show. You don't see him standing off in a corner all alone, do you?

New, thinking of you, just you! A secret like yours, if you're married, is pretty hard to keep secret. With the kind of publicity you're getting, your marriage will be unbearable. You'd have to keep your marriage a very wrong word, one thing. You'd have to walk on egg shells every minute. Now you've planned a debut. We don't care what the truth is . . . all we want is your answer . . . are you married or aren't you, yes or no.

Look, we're your friends. It's gone beyond the fan stage . . . and we're mature enough to take the news that you're both real live human beings, not beautiful dolls like a live in a plastic world. If you're real you want to be married or not. Tell us! We don't want to hear your press agent's releases, we want the facts. We want them from YOU. Please don't let us down again on record this time, we have the right to know!

KIND OLD' BOBBY D.

HOLLYWOOD—Bobby Dale, otherwise known as Benevolent Bobby, the wonder boy of the airwaves, (no wonder he's a wonder boy . . . he keeps everyone wondering!) has proclaimed himself the world's foremost authority on Chuck Berry. B.B. (Benevolent Bobby) has one of the funniest shows on radio, and it's worth staying up until six in the morning just to listen. At least, that's what he says. (Really, the show is so funny that he even cracks up the engineers!)

Bobby has long been a Chuck Berry fan, although he has never met him except for a brief moment. "I touched his guitar string," he brags modestly.

When asked if he would say that Chuck Berry is his idol, Bobby replied, "I have no idols . . . but I guess you could say that Margo and Margo Lane are my favorite performers." When asked who Margo Lane is, Bobby said "Margo Lane is anybody you like. Everybody has a Margo Lane."

Bobby is "over 21," describes himself as "six feet of loving kindness, and a really beautiful guy." Although he said it before we did, in this one case, it was just have to agree with him!

To all of you who have been wondering if you won any of the groovy contests in the KRLA BEAT, don't miss the next issue! We'll be announcing all the winners of the 1110 contest, the Joey Paige contest, and the Dave Clark Five contest!

BEATLE BITS

by Dick Moreland

Good old Dave at the helm here . . . (that's me, Dick Moreland, for those one or two of you out there who don't know!) Anyway, it's Beatle Bits time again! (Yeah, yeah, yeah!) Any person who mentions the "Beatle weekend" on last week was either out of town or dead. Everyone I know had their eyeballs glued tight to the boob tube for the funniest hour on record! That, of course, was the Friday night show of the Beatles' first tour in America. The funny thing is, they really are that groovy and insane in person! That Sunday night show where they waited for an hour . . . well, if by that time everyone in California wasn't a confirmed Beatlemaniac, forget it!

Don't know if YOU know, but in case you don't (huh?) the boys' next movie will be in everlovin' color! The plot is a goss, and guess who will be the star? BOBBY RINGO! The story has Ringo being followed by a killer . . . it's too much! Hard Day's Night will be released again during the Christmas vacation, so you'll get a chance to see it a few dozen more times (save me a front row seat! Also, plans are being made for an Electronovision show for the four gear guys, but no further news on this is available at this time.)

Well, that's about it for this week. I'm off, with my John Lennon hat on my head and my Beatle pillow under my arm. See you in two weeks!

ENGLISH PEN PALS

Would you like to write to other teens over in England? You might like to catch up on the Beatles right from the source!

We have to know if you want to write to pen pals from Britain . . . so let us know! If enough of you say that you want English pen pals, KRLA will set it up and you can mail letters to the KRLA BEAT for us to send to England for you! Sorry, John, George, Paul, and Ringo are too busy to write, but you might like to get their next door neighbor! Send those letters in telling us if you like the idea, and we'll do the rest!
