

ROLLING STONES HERE FOR SURPRISE VACATION

KRLA BEAT

WILL RETURN IN 3 WEEKS

Hollywood—The KRLA BEAT prints all the news first! A month ago, the BEAT scooped everyone with the news that the Rolling Stones would fly to this country secretly for a rest before beginning their Australian tour January 22nd. And last week, that's exactly what they did! They arrived from England at 3:30 in the afternoon, Sunday, the 17th, and checked into their favorite hotel, the Beverly Hilton. With them on their three day stay was their producer, Andrew ("Boy Genius") Oldham, who has been responsible for many of their hit records.

FLEW IN TO SEE FRIENDS

The Stones flew in especially to be with two of their friends, singer Joey Paige and record producer Marshall Leib. On their first night in town, they visited several famous night clubs, but left early to get some sleep. The next day was a little more hectic. With Joey and Marshall for a guide, the "soul" five went on a buying spree, and spent over $2000.00 on groovy goodies to take back to England. Later, they went to a recording session at RCA, where Bill Wyman made a demonstration tape of a record he had written especially for Joey. After the session, Brian Jones, Keith Richards, Joey Paige, and Andrew Oldham went to a night club to hear Little Anthony & the Imperials, and then went back to the hotel. On their last day in America, Tuesday, they spent the whole day relaxing around the pool and getting a tan.

When interviewed by the KRLA BEAT, they had this to say: Dave Hull and Bobby Dale were their favorite d.j.s in the world, they will be back in three weeks for a longer stay, and the group are on good terms with each other and aren't thinking of breaking up.

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

Here it is, the issue you've all been waiting for! The results of our first annual KRLA BEAT AWARD. The voting was very close, but of course, no one had to tell you who would win first place. But you know, there really isn't any kind of award we can give the Beatles to thank them for all the wonderful things they've given us. Of course, buying their records is one way of saying "thanks," but how can you thank anyone for making the world more fun to live in... for changing popular music so much that even adults love rock and roll... for starting a British-American 'exchange' of entertainers that we might never have heard of otherwise... for uniting teenagers all over the world in a common bond of excitement and love. Maybe the only way to do it is to come right out and say... from myself, from all of you, from everyone everywhere; to John, George, Paul, and Ringo... we're truly grateful!

Because of the Space devoted to the KRLA BEAT Award, all regular features of the KRLA BEAT will not appear this week, but will return in the next issue!

When Dave came out to introduce the first act on KRLA's "hoot," the applause was deafening. Every one of the d.j.s and performers gave their time freely to KRLA for the March of Dimes.

One of the newer groups on the folk scene is the Youngfolk, who give a lighthearted, happy glow to any audience. They'll go places! (and not only because they look so good!)

Reb inspects the fringe on one of the Dillard's jackets. This "rural" style group has big city appeal . . . as was seen when they performed. Reb might get a jacket just like that!

Terry Brown, Bob Eubanks' secretary, Charlie 'O', and Dick Moreland go over the lineup. The whole show was perfect, all the way through! And next year's "hoot" will be great too!

Which way? That-a-way? No, this-a-way! Bob and Dave can even have fun with door signs! They are both very good friends . . . AND very good breaker-uppers if anyone ever needs a laugh!

Onstage, the Womenfolk entrance the audience with their beautiful harmony. Most of the songs the acts did were new to the audience, which added even more to the evening's enjoyment.

Gather 'round, boys! The KRLA d.j.s pose for a group picture . . . while Charlie looks anxiously towards the stage in case anyone misses their cue to go on. (No one did!)

Can you guess who this is with Dave and Bob? Why who else? It's the Little Old Lady From Pasadena! No wonder she looked so familiar! But don't be fooled . . . she still does a mean watusi!

No, it's not a new folksing duo . . . just a little clowning around from Bob and Dave. But you know something? They sounded pretty good! Wouldn't it be funny if . . . no, that's impossible!

Tim Morgan, who has worked at the Troubador many times, showed what a good voice with lots of feeling can do! Doug Weston, owner of the Troubador, co-produced the show with KRLA.

Bob Eubanks talks to the luckiest girl in America . . . Jackie DeShannon. Why lucky? She was the only girl to go on tour with the Beatles! And she told us that she loved every minute of it!

Framed in backstage sets, Jackie gives her two favorite d.j.s a fan-type squeeze! She says . . . "I don't care if I'm known as a folk or pop singer . . . just so I can sing songs with meaning."

Dick, Charlie, and Dave give the emperor a "royal" inspection! He does cut a rather regal figure in his white spats, gold robe and jeweled crown . . . especially with the gold Rolls!

The Dillards made everyone laugh so hard that the echoes probably still haven't died away! If you ever get a chance to see them, don't miss it. They're really terrific!

And guess who introduced the L.O.L.? None other than our own Emperor! The two had the audience in stitches, and people backstage couldn't stop laughing either! Those two are too much!

Hoyt Axton, well known to all folk fans, gave a performance that made everyone's spine tingle. They loved him! Every act on the show was so good no one could pick a favorite!

It's go-upstairs-and-get-ready time! Emperor Bob Hudson carries his gold emperor robe, and Casey leads the way. Casey gets better looking every day! All our d.j.s looked terrific that night.

Framed in backstage sets, Jackie gives her two favorite d.j.s a fan-type squeeze! She says . . . "I don't care if I'm known as a folk or pop singer . . . just so I can sing songs with meaning."

Dave found a set carrier and the fun began! After a wild race backstage, Dave showed that he really does drink TigerShake! Look at those muscles! (Bob has lots of muscles too!)

The Dillards made everyone laugh so hard that the echoes probably still haven't died away! If you ever get a chance to see them, don't miss it. They're really terrific!

Backstage, KRLA has a ringside seat. Next to Dick is Penny Dennis, and in the center is John Barrett, our general manager and one of the most wonderful bosses in the world!

Hoyt Axton, well known to all folk fans, gave a performance that made everyone's spine tingle. They loved him! Every act on the show was so good no one could pick a favorite!

Bob Hudson and the Little Old Lady from Pasadena discuss the show. If you weren't lucky enough to be there this year, don't get upset . . . KRLA's "Hoot" will be back next year!
