

Mick walked into the special section at the airport reserved for him. He was greeted by screaming fans, all waving copies of the magazine.

Before he had time to think, Gary was plunked into a chair and asked for his autograph. These fans were all there to meet the Rolling Stones, but they wanted Gary, too!

Gary decided to take a walk before the Rolling Stones got there. . . . Imagine his surprise when he ran into Billy J. Kramer and Gerry Marsden, who made a secret stopover in L.A.

The Stones arrived! They asked us to come to their hotel room for an autograph. Here, Gary introduces himself to Mick and Keith and starts the conversation.

Gary asks Mick if he has a girl here in California. "Not yet, but I'm looking!" Mick plans to come back here alone when he can, since this is his favorite state.

Mick poses for the KRLA camera. When he saw this picture, he said, "No one will ever believe that I comb my hair . . . but I do! (He does. Gary saw him!)"

What he liked this picture. "I usually don't like my photos," he added, "but this one is pretty good . . . it has something!" Don't you agree with Keith and Mick liked it, too.

Mick and Keith discuss the songs they are writing for their new album, which was recorded here in town. Keith liked Hollywood, and hopes they come here again soon.

"Watch the Birdie, boys!" After this shot, they showed Gary Brian's new guitar. "It's the only one like it in this country," Mick said. You'll see it in a picture of the show KRLA did in Long Beach.

At the filming of the TAMI show! Here, Brian looks at his watch while signing autographs in the background. Rob Foster and Dick Marsland are also there, and both of them had a blast!

Terry Brown, Bob Eubanks' secretary and a good friend of Mick's, discusses the show. In the background is Jane Milstead, editor of Teen Screen Magazine. There were over 15 acts on the show.

Guess who else was at the show? No, they aren't twins! Dick Marsland and Gerry Marsden do look alike, though! More pics of this show in a future issue. Be sure you don't miss it!
