

RINGO TO ENTER HOSPITAL; OPERATION

(Story in Col. 1)

K-R-A BEAT

OPERATION FOR BEATLE....

NEW YORK—Ringo Starr has announced that he will enter the hospital later this fall for his much talked about throat operation. He made the announcement at a press conference in New York just before the four Fab Four Beatles left this country to return to England.

RUMOR CONFIRMED
For months, there have been rumors that Ringo intended to have the operation, but it was finally confirmed when he made his statement to the press. Ringo does not know at this date just when he is to enter the hospital.

The operation will only take a few hours, but the famous drummer said that he expected to be in the hospital at least three days to catch up on some much needed rest. It is rumored that the three days will be sometime when the group does not have other pressing commitments, and will give John, George, and Paul a short vacation.

CONFIDED IN DAVE

Ringo didn't disclose the name of the hospital he is planning for his operation, however, when the group was in Los Angeles, Ringo confided to Dave Hull that it will be the University College Hospital where he was taken after his collapse last spring. The operation itself is very simple. Since Ringo never had his tonsils or adenoids removed, the main purpose of the operation will be to remove them, along with several small growths which cause our boy to get frequent attacks of tonsillitis, and sometimes cause Ringo to come down with very bad colds.

ASKS FOR TONSILS

Other than his throat, Ringo is in excellent condition. One fan has already asked for the tonsils to be preserved for her, but Ringo doesn't know yet whether he will answer her request. Everyone in the world joins KRLA in wishing him a speedy recovery.

Many of KRLA's listeners have wondered why they can't buy "Thinking of You Baby" by the D.C. Five, and "I'll Be Back Again," by the Beatles. Since KRLA's records are shipped to us directly from England, we get them before any other person in the U.S. of A. even knows they're out! These KRLA exclusives can only be heard on KRLA . . . just another way of saying KRLA listeners are first in EVERYTHING!

HI, HULLABALOOERS!

This is the scuzzy Hullabalooer himself, believe it or not! The only D.J. in the world who blows his own horn! Welcome to the KRLA Beat. I put it together with my own little hands, and you'd better like it. (Or I'll get YOU!) Seriously, this is KRLA's way of showing you how much we like you . . . even you, silently snickering to yourself off in a corner there! (I didn't mean YOU, the serious one.) You'd find a lot of scoops inside about your four favorites . . . "WHAT FOUR FAVORITES?" . . . SHUT UP! (That was Maud Skidmore. She doesn't really know who the Beatles are. But she does a good job of pretending.) MAUD! GET THAT BEATLE WIG OFF! On second thought, maybe she does know!

Back to the subject . . . the pictures inside were taken by KRLA, and are so exclusive that they are printed in disappearing ink! You won't see them anywhere else. (Everyone else turned them down.) Anyhow, what do you think of this newspaper. (news- paper?) (yet, newspaper!) I'd appreciate it if you'd let me know. I'd appreciate it even more if you'd write your answer on any old dirty dollar bill you happen to have lying around. Or even dirty old pennies. I'm not choosy! Now turn the page for the shock of your life!

D.C. FIVE HERE SOON

LOS ANGELES—KRLA scored again when they snapped up the Dave Clark Five for an exclusive Los Angeles appearance at the Long Beach Auditorium on November 25th. The boys will be met at the airport by KRLA D.J.s, and plans are being made for

HI, I'M BOB EUBANKS! Here is your own personal minute-by-minute guide of the Beatles' stay in Los Angeles. KRLA newsmen and photographers were there every minute to give all our listeners a guided tour through Beatle-land! (And that's the same as K*R*L*A*N*D)

The boys were so much fun to be with that I wish you all could have been with me. But since you weren't, here's the next best thing! Before they left, they asked me to give you their personal thanks for the groovy way they were treated in Los Angeles. So, from the Beatles . . . and from me . . . Thanks!

3:30 PM . . . THE BEATLES ARRIVE! Without telling a soul (except KRLA), the idols of millions land in Los Angeles to be cleared through customs. Derrick Taylor looks around to see if the coast is clear . . .

3:40 PM . . . It is, and so the boys slowly step down the ramp pausing for the KRLA photographer as they come down. The first they said was "Hey, it's sunny . . . we can go swimming!"

4:40 AM The boys are whisked into a security car and driven to the home in Bel Air where they will stay while they are in town. Ringo, in the back seat, is already half asleep. P.S.: He got to sleep later!

6:00 PM Press conference time! Out at Bob Eubanks' Cinnamon Cinder, he and Reb Foster introduce the Beatles and tell members of the press that they can start asking questions . . . and they started asking!

"WHAT ABOUT JANE ASHER, PAUL?" "W and all, but we certainly aren't married. I found her yet, but I'm having a blast!"

"YOU WANTED TO SAY SOMETHING, RINGO?" "Uh . . . yes. Can I have a drink of water?" Thanks. Now tell me, when do we get to ask all YOU people some questions?" Bob Eubanks handed Ringo the glass, but didn't save it!

8:00 PM 'B DAY' IS HERE! The Bowl started filling at 3:00 in the afternoon! Everyone hoped to catch a glimpse of their beloved Beatles, but the boys were secretly brought in only a few minutes before the show.

9:00 PM The other acts have performed. Dave Hull, Reb Foster, Bob Eubanks . . . is a moment of silence . . . and then . . .

Ringo's hair is flying. His hands are going so fast that they're just a blur in the air. Every time he moves his head, the screams grow louder. Will anyone ever be able to forget 'B Day'? We doubt it!

Too soon, the boys take their final bow. By the time the screams have stopped, they are halfway to Bel Air for a three day vacation in Los Angeles before resuming their cross country tour.

2:00 PM It's over. The Beatles are leaving. The weather knew how sad Los Angeles was at the airport to say a last final

3:42 PM KRLA's newsmen, Jim Steck, was right there to tape exclusive interviews with all four Beatles . . . something no one else was able to do. Then the boys took off for San Francisco's Cow Palace.

4:10 PM Finally, the Beatles arrive back in L.A. for their performance. Again, they land secretly so that crowds wouldn't mob them. KRLA is first on the scene! The boys were groggy and half asleep . . .

4:25 PM . . . But they still were able to smile and talk with KRLA newsmen. The only thing they could talk about, though, was getting some sleep before the long, hard day's night ahead of them.

not about her? Oh, we're good friends. I'm looking for the perfect girl. Haven't found one yet."

"WHAT DO YOU THINK OF AMERICAN GIRLS, GEORGE?" "THEY ARE JUST TOO MUCH! I really dig them! Never saw a country before where EVERY ONE of the girls were truly gear, but I haven't seen one here that missed yet!"

"JOHN, ARE YOU LEAVING THE GROUP?" "Rubbish! Wouldn't have anyone to pick on if I did. Besides, if I left these poor clods, they wouldn't know what to do. I'm the only one they listen to!" (Paul laughed)

. . . the KRLA D.J.'s walk on stage . . . the audience grows quiet . . . "HERE THEY ARE . . . THE BEATLES!!!!"

They look at Ringo . . . he adjusts his drums. Paul tunes his guitar. The audience screams louder and louder . . . finally, Ringo is ready. He gives the signal. The boys turn and face the stage . . . and sing.

"I want to hold your hand . . ." The girls let him know by their screams that they want to hold his, too! The screams go on . . . and the Beatles sing . . . and sing . . . and sing. There's never been anything like it!

ing. The day is cloudy, almost as though it was to see them go. Jim Steck meets the boys. . . goodbye . . .

2:10 PM . . . BUT WAIT! WHAT'S THIS? WHY THE SURPRISED LOOK ON JOHN AND GEORGE'S FACES? COULD IT BE . . . YES, BY GUM, IT IS! THE BEATLES MAY BE LEAVING KRLA-N-D. BUT KRLA ISN'T LEAVING THE BEATLES!

2:13 PM With the KRLA 'hockey-players' safely tucked inside, the doors are closed, and the plane takes off. Yes, they're gone. But don't cry too hard . . . because they'll soon be back!

This Saturday, KRLA has a... er, treat coming up: It seems that Bobby Pickett has bewitched everyone into thinking that they'd love to have his monsters here at KRLA, and as for the outcome... we'll let him tell you about it...

... there was thunder and lightning outside, too. The thunder was from the doctor. He was afraid my parents couldn't pay the bill. The date was October 31. The year was 1664.

I lost most of my family during the Salem witch burnings. My nerves were so shot by this that I had to retire to a nice cool vault and sleep for a few hundred years.

One day a KRLA D.J. accidentally kicked open the stone to my tomb. Alas, the poor man was found at daybreak. However, I managed to disguise myself well and took over the poor man's show the next day. Unfortunately, I was discovered by Reb Foster, who kicked me out. When I came to, I found myself outside the station, pounding on the door. But although he wouldn't let me back inside, I got my revenge. I sent him Maud Skildmore!

After months of pounding at the door, KRLLA took pity on me and let me inside. After someone brushed the cobwebs off my clothes, and the moss from the north side of my face, they agreed to let me have my own show. It starts this Saturday, and you'd better be listening . . . DO YOU HEAR? YOU'D BETTER LISTEN . . . OR ELSE . . . HEH, HEH, HEH! YOU WILL LISTEN! YOU ARE GETTING TURNED ON THE RADIO . . . YOU WANT TO LEAVE IT AT KRLLA AND NOT SHUT IT OFF TILL I COME ON . . . HEH, HEH, HEH! YOU WILL SIT BY THE RADIO WITHOUT MOVING WHILE I SPEAK . . . YOU WILL, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH, HEH.

DUSTY ILL

Dusty Springfield was stricken with a virus this week while she was on tour in the West Indies. Doctors suspect that she may also Doctors suspect that she may also have food poisoning; however, they say that her condition is not serious. She was planning to leave for America just as the illness struck.

WILL REST FOR A WEEK
Although she is in good condition, doctors have ordered her to rest for at least a week before resuming the tour. After her recovery, Dusty will make a stopover in Los Angeles where it is rumored that she will visit the KRLA studios.

KRLA to also host a party in their honor. In keeping with the station's tradition of bringing all of England's top groups to KRL*A*N*D*, future visits by the Rolling Stones, Gerry and the Pacemakers, and Dusty Springfield are also being discussed.

Peter Feels Much Better

LONDON — Peter Asher, of Peter and Gordon fame, is reported feeling better today and will be out of the hospital this week. The boys had interrupted their entire schedule in hopes that Peter would get better with some rest, but it was necessary to hospitalize him. His illness was described as a stomach ailment. When Peter was in town several months ago, he told KRLA newsmen that he hadn't been feeling well. It is reported that Jane Asher, Peter's sister, goes to see him every day. As soon as Peter is allowed out of bed, the boys will start on a tour of Scotland. They will return to this country in late spring or early summer of next year.

FAX
BY AIR ON Faster

Hi, everyone, WAY

FOSTER speaking, I've gone out and gathered some super scoops on all your record favorites, so that you can have all the fax on wax in the record world! KRLA listeners are always in the know, you know! Now, on with the exclusive news, brought to you, of course by K-R-B-A! (and me).

DAVE CLARK denies that he is thinking of marriage. Rumors say that he is getting serious about a girl in London, but KRLA newsmen checked on this, and it is untrue.

The marriage of ANNETTE and JACK GILARDI will take place early this January. Annette is having her gown designed by a California designer, and SHELLEY FABARES will be matron of honor.

THE HONEYCOMBS, who's recording of "Have I The Right" is climbing towards the number one position, are making arrangements to tour America early this spring. The boys are quite handsome, and have always wanted to come to America.

BOBBY PICKETT, recording star, joins the KRLA staff this Saturday for one of the most unusual shows in the world. You'll meet some very merry monsters, and if you listen to the show alone with the lights off . . . well, that's your fault!

Right now, I'm in Central America with the STANDELLS. We're having a great time, but I sure do miss all of you! It's very hot here, but the girls are going crazy over the Standells. In case you didn't know, LARRY TAMBLYN, the leader of the group, is RUSS TAMBLYN'S brother!

PAT AND LOLLY VEGAS are in San Francisco right now, and filling the house every night. They have one of the greatest acts I've ever seen!

I'll be back next week, so all of you hold on tight! See you soon! (And with the most beautiful tan in the world!) (I mean, I won't see you with the tan! It's KRLA's ratings are now the highest of any station in Los Angeles, thanks to you, KRLA listeners. All the staff of the station wishes to take this opportunity to thank you, and to tell you that we would like to hear from you with any suggestions you may have to make KRLA even better!

BEATLE
BITS...

Dick Moreland here, John Lennon hat and everything! Just thought you might like to know a few of the little unknown facts about the Beatles that no one else has ever printed before . . . so here they are!

Most of you know that they bought their clothes at the Beau Gentry while in Los Angeles. But did you know that many stars buy their clothes there too, and so do most of the KRLA D.J.s? The boys were told about the shop by the Rolling Stones, who were in K*R*L*A*N*D a few months

Speaking of the Rolling Stones, John Lennon loves them, and George is having them teach him how to play the guitar the way they do. John has every one of their records, and spends hours listening to them.

No one knew that Paul disappeared for a few hours from Bel Air, but now the secret can be told! Paul combed his hair back, disguised himself with sunglasses, and went walking in Hollywood. The reason no one knew about it was because he started sightseeing at 6:00 in the morning!

Here are a few of the different little habits of each Beetle.

Ringo, when he is nervous, constantly keeps smoothing his hair. When he is excited, he turns the rings on his fingers. If Ringo has a red mark on his finger, you know he's twisted the ring so much that he's had to take it off! John, on the other hand, is perfectly deadpan. When he is mad, he doesn't say anything, but his foot starts twitching. Paul pulls at his ear lobe whenever he is thinking about something. George bites his lower lip. All four boys are very polite and seldom lose their temper.

Well, it's time to go riding off into the sunset . . . see you on the radio!

New Show
On K R L A

Starting this Saturday, KRLA presents something new in the way of radio shows. Bobby Pickett, who has had many hit records, including Monster Mash and Monster Holiday, makes his radio debut at 7:30.

CASEY'S CORNER!

Hi! This is Casey! So many of you have asked questions about "Letter From Elaina" that I thought I'd take this opportunity to answer a few of them!

Elaina in her teens. When she wrote me the letter, I had no idea that it would touch all of you the way it did me. When I read it on the air, and got such enthusiastic results from all of you, I thought of making a record of the letter. Since Elaina's mother didn't want the publicity to affect her daughter, she made me promise not to reveal Elaina's last name. Elaina, of course, is thrilled to death with the record. 'Not because it's a record,' she told me, 'but because George might hear it now!' Don't worry, Elaina, he has! (and loved it).

When I spoke with the Beatles' press agent, I managed to get a list of some of the Liverpool slang they use. You already know what Gear and a few other words mean, but now I'll give you the rest of the list so that you can talk "Beatle Talk."

You've got cheek' means 'You're pretty nerdy!' 'Fooney' means funny, and 'Roobish' is rubbish, which is anything that's silly or untrue. The Beatles never shut up. What they do say is 'Shurrp!' Pulling the lower lip up between the teeth and blowing air through it is a polite way of calling someone a liar! 'Screamies' are fans. No explanation needed there! Knock yourself out' means 'Be my guest.' When the Beatles call someone a pip, they mean he is completely unnecessary! 'Wild' means that something has soul.

Well, the boss is calling. Maybe it's because I was so busy writing this that I'm late for my show! See you later!

Hull
Elected

KRLA D.J. Dave Hull was chosen as one of America's eight D.J.'s to be a member of Ringo's Presidential Cabinet by Teen Screen Magazine. Teen Screen conducted a national Ringo for President campaign, with eight D.J.'s selected by popular vote for the cabinet. Dave Hull won by a large margin to represent the West Coast. Publisher Shelley Heiman stated that Hull is represented by the National Teenage Party, and reported to KRLA that the platform of the Teenage Party is "Let's get down off this platform and have a party!"

ACCEPTANCE SPEECH

In his acceptance speech, Hull promised to kill the school bill, and any other kind of bill he can think of. It is a well known fact that he hates bills! Hull also stated that he will perform his duties with complete conviction, steadfast strength, and utter abandon.
